A Tribute of Love.

Mrs. Lawrence T. Everett fell asleep at home in Laurinburg at noon Friday, June 20th, 1919.

Mrs. Everett was before her marriage, Miss Martha Wall Covington, daughter of Mr. Thomas T. Covington and Mary Jane Ellerbe, both old families of Richmond county. Martha was born on the fourth day of July, 1850, in the home now occupied by Mr. Ed. Thomas near Rockingham. Child of two families whose history is the history of the settlement and development of Richmond County, she loved its people and traditions, and was never more animated than when telling her children and grandchildren the close and accurate connection of these Richmond county people who were her own kinsfolk.

The family moved to the old Covington home near Laurinburg when she was about four years of age and in this locality her life was spent. She was educated at Floral College, truly a gentle woman, by birth and breeding.

In 1867 she was married to Lawrence Everett, and to them were born eleven children, six sons and five daughters, all of whom survive her.

During her happy married life her home was famous for its hospitality, and was a place of gathering for young folks from all parts of the section. And she spent herself always to bring joy to the crowd.

Thirty years ago, God called her good husband to come up higher, and upon her fell the burden and great responsibility of rearing this house full of little children alone. Shrinking, retiring and timid--I wonder how she did it? So firm, so sweet, and so gently quiet was she with them, that when I think of how splendidly she wrought, I am persuaded that the power of the most High was given her, for without a single exception these children have gone out into the world clean of heart and honest of purpose because of her! Hear every day, that her children the tribute of one of her sons, could, with one accord, so praise-written her from overseas: "Soon you will be having a birthday, and tho' far away, I shall be thinking of you, and I want you to know that because of you, my life has been kept clean, and you are the one person in all the splendid world whom I can love without a single mental reservation. And each of the eleven could add their signature to this: "Tis the measure of a perfect woman's
